Sgt Neil Obbard Event – Wednesday 29th May

We are delighted to be hosting Staff Sgt Neil Obbard who has an amazing story to tell which is ideal for inviting guests along to.

Neil Obbard of the Adjutant General's Corps had an extraordinary military career, having been deployed to Northern Ireland, Bosnia, Kosovo and Iraq. Neil became an expert sniper who was engaged in special operations combat missions, intelligence-gathering, target identification and eliminating high-value targets. Neil came to faith in Christ through the ministry of the team at the Mothers' Union AFIA holiday. His life's work now is in sharing his story and faith in Christ both in the UK and overseas. The event starts at 7.30pm and is ticketed at £15 per head which includes a curry meal provided by Cinnamon Bay in Yateley.

Tickets are available from St Peter's Parish Office, Café 46 & Discoveries with a deadline of Friday 24th May for purchase.
